ABOUT DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

The Department of Chemistry was established in the year 2001 and has been devoted to teaching and advanced research in Chemistry. The department has distinguished itself as a Centre for innovative and pioneering teaching and research in different fields of Chemistry. It was elevated to the status of VTU Research Centre in 2011 in recognition of its achievements in various fields and received sponsored projects from VTU Research Grant, KSCST and VGST. The major research efforts are focused on areas such as catalysis, reaction kinetics, corrosion, polymers, nanomaterials, and electrochemistry. To ignite the quest for chemistry and its versatile applications in the young minds of future engineers the department organizes various activities such as guest lectures, quiz, workshops, conferences, and seminars. The faculty members in the department are actively betrothed to Teaching as well as in Research.

Chemistry Research Centre has completed three major research projects from various funding agencies. More than 60 research papers have been been published in peer reviewed National and International journals. The department has established a Biodiesel Production Unit in 2018. Also we have initiated the development of a Simarouba Park for the utilisation of oil yielding trees.
